WSSA 47th Annual Conference

President's Welcoming Letter

Welcome to the 47th Annual Conference of the Western Social Science Association. It is a pleasure to be in Albuquerque and to have the opportunity to visit with so many fine professional colleagues. I especially welcome those of you who are attending WSSA for the first time.

Please note all the conference-wide receptions, luncheons, and sessions that are available. WSSA encourages participation from students in all social science fields, and I encourage you to look for student presentations in a number of panels. If you have any questions, you will find that the people working at the registration desk are very helpful.

If you haven't signed up yet for the plenary luncheons on Thursday and Friday, I hope you will consider joining us by purchasing tickets at the registration desk. On Thursday I plan to share with you some thoughts on the role and potential of the social sciences in these "interesting times" that we are living in.

Sincerely,
Lisa Nelson
WSSA President
